

Global Health Lecture Series

Ending Hunger, Giving Hope, and Enriching Lives featuring
South Plains Food Bank CEO, David Weaver

Wednesday, January 22
Noon
ACB 120

Zoom: <https://ttuhsc.zoom.us/j/2729835938>

David Weaver is a Lubbock native. He has worked with the South Plains Food Bank since 1991. He holds a B.A. in Sociology from Texas Tech University as well as a M.A. in Theatre. He also has a M.Div. degree from Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Food insecurity impacts the most vulnerable members of our community impacting their social well-being, health, education and productivity. As the CEO of the South Plains Food Bank, David works with the South Plains Food Bank board, volunteers, and staff to reduce food insecurity in the twenty counties served by the South Plains Food Bank. The food bank works with 150 different non-profits, schools, and churches to distribute nearly 10 million pounds of food to 63,000 individuals each year.

Free lunch will be provided to the first 50 attendees (Lubbock campus only).
This event is free & open to the public. No RSVP is necessary.
