LECTURE SERIES

From Bosnia, to Baghdad, Washington, and Austin: A Look at a Career in Foreign Affairs with TIEC President & CEO Robin Lerner, J.D.

Wednesday,
March 30 2022
12p - 1p
Via Zoom
(Register Here)

Robin Lerner will discuss her varied professional experiences in foreign policy, including leading on women's issues, human rights, and public diplomacy at the U.S. Department of State and on the U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee, her work helping trafficking victims and ethnic minorities in post-conflict Balkan countries, and ultimately what led her to serving as president and CEO of Texas International Education Consortium (TIEC). Ms. Lerner has spent a lifetime immersing herself in cultures around the world toward bringing greater equality, equity, governance, and broad human rights. To succeed, she has cultivated knowledge and expertise in international relations, global women's issues, international policy, program development, civic affairs, public service, and interprofessional collaboration.
