

Global Health Lecture Series

State of the World 2017: Predictions and Reflections

featuring

Ambassador Tibor P. Nagy

Vice Provost for International Affairs, Texas Tech University

Tuesday, January 31
Noon, ACB 150

Join us as we glean from Ambassador Tibor P. Nagy's knowledgeable commentary on the state of the world. During this presentation, Ambassador Nagy will share his predictions for 2017 and reflect on the "hits" and "misses" of his 2016 predictions.

Ambassador Tibor P. Nagy serves as Vice Provost for International Affairs at Texas Tech University. Previously he served as the U.S. Ambassador to Ethiopia (1999-2002) and Guinea (1996-1999.) In addition to his service abroad, Ambassador Nagy has served as an Africa advisor to several presidential campaigns including Obama in 2008 and Romney in 2012. Over the years, Ambassador Nagy has lived or worked in Zambia, Seychelles, Ethiopia, Togo, Cameroon, Nigeria, and Guinea.

Ambassador Nagy was born in Budapest, Hungary and arrived in the United States as a political refugee in 1957. He received a B.A. from Texas Tech University in 1972 and an M.S.A. from George Washington University in 1978.

This event is free & open to the public. Free lunch will be provided to the first 50 attendees. No RSVP is necessary.

To reserve your lunch, please bring two coloring books to the Office of Global Health (2B410) by Monday, January 30.
